

Katahdin Woods and Waters Huts on Elliotsville Plantation, Inc.'s Land Available for Public Use

Haskell Hut – sleeps eight.

Big Spring Brook Hut – sleeps 16.

Both huts have bunks, woodstove, firewood supply, and large pot for melting snow.

Campers need to bring their own winter camping gear.

Melt snow and treat it or bring in water for drinking. Melt snow for clean up.

Gear can be shuttled, if desired, by Matagamon Wilderness Camps.

Donation: $25/per person/per night

For reservations or questions, contact Rachel Kobasa:

Rachel@elliotsvilleplantation.org

(207) 518-9462

Rachel Kobasa

Elliotsville Plantation, Inc.,

P.O. Box 148,

Portland, ME 04112

Schools or non-profit groups should contact the Recreation Managers for reservations and information:

Susan Adams

Lunksoos@gmail.com

(207) 852-1291

P.O. Box 662

Patten, Maine 04765

View the location of the huts on the Katahdin Woods & Waters winter recreation map at http://katahdinwoods.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/05/KKW_Winter_Rec_Map_20142.jpg.